After the specified date, the suggestions and objections received will be tabulated and made into sets and distributed to all Members of the Commission including Asociate Members.

Public Sittings

After the last date for submiting suggestions and objections is over, the Commission will hold public sittings at one or more places in the State to hear the public in person. Wide publicity will be given to those sittings.

Final Orders

After hearing the public, the Commission will hold a final meeting attended by Associate Members (though they have no right to vote) to consider all suggestions received in writing as well as orally made at the public sittings and decide the modifications that are required to be made to the draft proposals and prepare a final order. The final order thus prepared, both for assembly constituencies and parliamentary constituencies of the State, will be signed by the full Commission and the Secretary to the Delimitation Commission will cause the final orders to be published in the Gazette of India and State Gazette. The final orders are also required to be published in two vernacular news papers in the State concerned. After the final order are published, the President of India shall be requested to issue a notification specifying a date from which the said orders shall come into force. The copies of those orders shall also be laid before the House of the People and the State Legislative Assembly concerned, but no modification shall be permissible therein by them.

Reservation for physically handicapped in lower judicial services

2572. SHRI B.S. GNANADESIKAN: Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have any plan to give reservation for the physically handicapped in the lower judicial services;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) if not, whether reservation for physically handicapped in judicial service would be considered in consulation with the Chief Justice of India?

THE MINISTER OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI ARUN JAITLEY): (a) to (c) Under article 235 of the Constitution of India, the administrative control over the members of Subordinate Judicial Service vests with the concerned High Court. Further, in exercise of powers conferred under proviso to article 309 read with articles 233 and 234 of the Constitution, the State Government frames rules and regulations in consultation with the High Court. The members of the State Judicial Service are governed by these rules and regulations.

Women Courts

2573. SHRI AHMED PATEL: Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have advised the States to constitute Women Courts to try cases pertaining to women; and

(b) if so, the reaction of the Government of Gujarat, thereto?

THE MINISTER OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI ARUN JAITLEY): (a) and (b) No, Sir. However, as per the information furnished by High Court of Gujarat, as in January, 2002, there was no Women Court functioning in the State of Gujarat for disposal of cases pertaining to crime against women. The High Court had made a proposal in 1999 to the State Government to establish special courts in each District in the State for expeditious disposal of offences against women under different heads, like atrocity, essential commodities, corruption, etc. The proposal was still under examination of the State Government.
